ian mcewan s atonement meets guillermo del toro s pan s labyrinth in this extraordinary debut this book is written to emphasize the fact that salvation is through the finished work of the cross of jesus christ that there is only one god who is almighty and eternal who revealed himself through the person of jesus christ it looks at the various ways the devil is deceiving people into believing that there are many ways of reaching god it tries to highlight the danger that is in taking false teaching because any other means of worship apart from through jesus christ does not lead to the one true god but to a god which is devil worship it touches on the fall of man that man was created being allergic to sin the writer then touches in brief how jesus christ touched him then the great deception is revealed through the bible and proof is given why bible must be believed as the holy true infallible word of god the writer then looks at the purpose of mosaic law and why it was not intended to impart salvation also that one cannot choose a part of the mosaic law like keeping of the sabbath without taking the whole law book then explains who jesus christ is the holy spirit and god the father and explains what is meant by the finished work of the cross unless stated most quotations are from king james version it s a thief s dream come true dex otie can t believe his luck when he sees the railroad trestle collapse hurtling the bluefield golden special into the gorge below it gets even better when one of the bodies he is robbing turns out to be wade murchison carrying the loot from a bank job so what if wade isn t quite dead yet dex can take care of that or can he

from a truly groundbreaking voice in african theater these three plays have disturbed and transported audiences in south africa and abroad with their depictions of some uncomfortable episodes in south african history from witch hunts in kokstad and the saga of king hintsa s skull to the prophecies of nongqawuse and the ensuing cattle killing crisis these plays touch on shared neuroses and fears blending the tragic and transcendent with the farcical with accompanying essays and working notes the playwright gives background and insight into each of the productions and outlines his own artistic development and vision this richly designed book re creates something of the funky energy haunting magic and colorful imagery of the plays themselves
